New for 2021 Tax Year!

File Homestead Online

Welcome to the Volusia County Property Appraiser Website

Hurricane season began in earnest, and will continue through November 30th. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) predicts a 60% chance of an above-normal season, a 30% chance of a near-normal season and only a 10% chance of a below-normal season. This year, the need to be prepared is particularly important due to social distancing and other CDC guidelines keeping you safe from COVID-19. These changes may impact your disaster preparedness plan. For some helpful tips, check the Volusia County Emergency Management disaster preparedness page.
